RE: Galluzzo v. Champaign County Court Common Pleas
U.S. District Court Case C-3-01-174, Southern District of Ohio,
Western Division at Dayton

To All Concerned:

This letter is mailed for several reasons. First, enclosed please find a Motion to Supplement the Amicus Curiae Brief of Children's Rights Council which was granted by Magistrate Judge Merz on February 4, 2003. Second, I want to clarify my role in the above case. As a permanent member of the bar of the Southern District of Ohio, I was approached by three organizations regarding pro hac vice admission for counsel for the organizations in the above case. The pro hac vice admission was needed for the filing of Amicus Curiae briefs.

As a result, I am listed as Trial Attorney for Children's Rights Council, for Marriage our Mission (MOM) and for Childs Best Interest. All three organizations have filed briefs. I have asked the attorneys for each organization to mail out copies of their briefs to each of you. If you have not received copies of the briefs, then please contact my co-counsel. Co-counsel for Children's Rights Council is David Levy, 6200 Editors Park Drive, Suite 103 Hyattsville, Maryland 20782, (301)559-3120. Co-counsel for Childs Best Interest is S. Todd Brecount, 108 Miami Street, P.O. Box 795, Urbana, Ohio

43078, (937)484-7303. Co-counsel for Marriage Our Mission (MOM) is Kevin J. M. Senich, 4438 Pearl Road, Cleveland, Ohio 44109-4225, (216)661-6468.

Hopefully the above information will set straight my involvement with the three organizations that have filed Amicus Curiae briefs. If I can help further, please contact me.

Sincerely,

POPP & TUSS
